The Journalism Class Cookbook Fundraiser

Written by: Journalism Class

The Journalism Class is in the process of creating a project that is fun and educational, but needs help from the community. The class is putting together a cookbook to include many different items such as recipes of any kinds, historical facts about the community, interesting stories that are humorous, and favorite quotes.

In this project students will learn computer setups, more information about their community, and understand printing skills. The students will be selling the cookbooks after they get them put together.

You may submit your recipes and other items by March 31, 2006, to the Journalism Class or Mrs.

Dunnaway. Recipes may also be dropped off at the Bright Elementary School.

Teacher Spotlight

Written by: Carl Schoultheis and Ciara Caroll

This week's teacher spotlight is Mrs. Gray. She has been teaching for 37 years. The subjects that she teaches include Algebra, Geometry, and Chemistry. Mrs. Gray has taught at several other schools including North Adams High School, Ohio Valley Vocational School, and summer programs at Southern Hills Career Center. She likes teaching because she enjoys sharing her knowledge and she also likes the opportunity to work with teenagers. When asked where she would want to go on vacation she said, "I would like to cruise to Alaska or a take a trip to Australia." Mrs. Gray is married to Danny. Together they have a daughter Greta; a son-in-law Mike; a son Eric; a daughter Erin; and a grandson Dan-Ray. If she wasn't teaching she would like to either be a landscaper or a farmer. Her favorite food is Mexican and her favorite color is any color in the rainbow.

Three Years in Iraq

Written by: Current Events Class

It has been three years since the U.S. led invasion of Iraq to overthrow the government Saddam Hussein. After months of war, past years have been spent attempting to rebuild the lives of Iraqis. Although some progress has been reported, some still fear a possibility of civil war between different groups of Muslims. Some Americans have organized protests against U.S. policy towards reconstruction as casualty reports continue to indicate violent confrontation.

Beau's Question of the Week

"College or wide rule paper why or why not?"

"Wide that way I don't have to write as much."
-Alice Tallieu

"Yellow college ruled paper because it is brighter and you can write more. It is also colorful."
- John Hensley

"College, because you can fit more on a page plus it saves trees."
-Julie Watson
Ohio FFA President
