Seniors Say Goodbye to a Successful Season

Written by: Rebecca Herzog

The Ladycats ended their successful season Wednesday vs. Eastern Reedsville. WHS won the first game 26-24 but didn't pull through for the next three. Although the season did end, they took home a Sectional Championship, the first since 1998.

The 'Cats beat out Manchester after a hard-fought four match game. "We played much better than we've played all year," stated Coach Angie Wright. Sarah Neal, Skye Lucas, Kayla Seip, Anna Calhoun, and Elysia Setty say goodbye to their Ladycats volleyball team. We would like to wish the girls the best of luck and we hope to see them playing again in the future!

Sarah Neal makes an attack against Manchester in the Ladycats sectional tournament game against Manchester.

Band Visits Circleville

Written by: Rebecca Herzog

On Friday, October 19th the high school band visited Circleville, Ohio at their annual Pumpkin Festival. This year was one of many that the band marched in the Friday Pet Parade.

The band marched along to the song "Tequila" composed by Chuck Rio and arranged by Paul Jennings. The next performance by the band will be November 27th at the boys basketball game and their annual Christmas Concert and Parade in December. Please come listen and support your WHS band!

California Fires

Written by: Briana Hooley, Heather Brewer, and Stephanie Westfall

Over 250,000 people of California have run from their homes to avoid massive fires. These fires have been caused by dry weather and the Santa Anna winds. About 600 square miles have burned and no one knows what will be left of their homes upon their return. As long as the heat and winds continue, firefighters say that the fires will as well. The Southeastern U.S. is also in danger due to drought conditions. Changes in the weather, have been improving (some of these conditions since) Wednes-

Service Learning Class Helps Students Decorate Pumpkins

Written by: Rebecca Herzog

The Service Learning class took a field trip on Wednesday and Thursday to Bright Elementary to decorate pumpkins with the preschool and multi-handicapped classes. Those attending were Amber Brown, Anna Calhoun, Lisa Fox, Mary McFarland, Skye Lucas, Mike Williams, Stephanie Westfall, Meghan Barr, and Kurt Yochum. Kasey Sosby was the photographer. The students were given homemade cookies at the end. Supplies were purchased with funds from the Learn and Serve Grant.
