FFA BANQUET

Written by: Danielle Grooms

On Wednesday, April 29th, 2009, the Mowrystown FFA held their annual member recognition banquet in the WHS gym. Ponderosa catered this event and the Mowrystown FFA also featured a Senior Scholarship Silent Auction. Banquet is organized to recognize members, businesses, and community members on their accomplishments and achievements in or for the FFA. The Mowrystown FFA had a lot of members that were active this year. The outstanding Greenhand was Kyle Dunaway. The Outstanding Chapter Farmer was Ashley Frazer. The Outstanding Junior was Monica Palmer and the Outstanding Senior was Amber Frazer, who also received the DeKalb Agricultural Accomplishment Award. Congrats to all members on another successful year!

Outstanding Senior winners: Jennifer Bohrer, 3rd, Katy Wickline, 2nd, and Amber Frazer, 1st

SENIOR SPOTLIGHT

Written by: Cassie Buzard

The senior spotlight this week is Megan Young. Megan was born on June 10, 1991 at Highland District Hospital to parents, Jon and Sue Young. Megan also shares her home with her brother Matt and her dogs, Bailey, Sadie, and Sophie, and her three black cats. Some of Megan's favorite things are the color brown, gym class, and her favorite teacher is Miss Ellis. If Megan could go anywhere she would go on a cruise to many different beaches. Megan goes to SSCC for full time PSO. When she is not working on school work, she likes to play volleyball, hang out with friends, swim, and ride four-wheelers. After graduation Megan plans to continue attending SSCC full-time and attend UC Clermont part time majoring in Early Childhood Education and minor in Occupational Therapy.
