BAND AND CHOIR HOLD SPRING CONCERT AND AWARDS

Written by: Stephanie Docter

On Monday, May 4, the annual Spring Concert and Awards Night was held. The award ceremony began at 6:30 p.m. in the Student Center. Among the award winners were: Outstanding Band Member, Brian Simmons; Outstanding Choir Member, Heather Thompson; Nicki Piezer Memorial Award, Danielle Marler; National Choral Award, Kyle Johnson; and John Phillip Sousa Award, Stephanie Docter. The trumpets were declared the Outstanding Section of the Year.

Following the awards, the concert began with a performance of "Cross the Wide Missouri" by the vocal ensemble of Stephanie Docter, Julia Talieu, Bailey Walker and Kendra Westrich, accompanied by Kevin Walker. The 7th grade students then performed "Let the Flag of Freedom Wave," "Hang on Sloopy," and "Name Those Tunes." The high school choir was next, and gave an entertaining presentation of "Hakuna Matata," "Bless the Broken Road," "At the Hop," and "TV Time." Concluding the concert was the high school band, finishing strong with the pieces "Golliwog's Cakewalk," "American Riversongs," and "From Ancient Times." Mrs.

Gleim was extremely pleased with the concert, and is very proud of her students' efforts this year.

FFA EXCELS AT CONVENTION

Written by: Ashley Frazer

State FFA Convention was Friday and Saturday, May 1 and 2. Many Mowrystown FFA students got to walk across the stage and get recognized for their accomplishments. Faith Hawkins received a gold rating on her Treasurer's book. Monica Palmer, Megan Bohrer, and Grant Edenfield received their State Degree. Kendra Westrich took part in the State Talent competition. She placed 1st over all, singing "Letters from War" by Mark Schultz. In addition, Kendra Westrich, Amber Thompson, Heather Thompson, and Tasha Gregory sang in the State Choir. Finally, Brian Simmons, Ashley Frazer, Ashley Crone, Monica Palmer, and Jessica Jones played in the State Band.

SENIOR SPOTLIGHT

Written by: Cassie Buzard

Austin Trueblood was born at Highland District Hospital on July 1, 1990, to parents Melinda and Dale Blankenship. Austin has a brother named Blake and a dog named Cookie. Some of Austin's favorite things are the color blue, Math and Mrs. Fishback. If Austin could go anywhere he wanted, he would go to Lebron James' house. When Austin is not at school, he enjoys showing steers, watching sports and doing ninja things. If Austin could be any superhero he wanted, he would choose to be Lebron James. After graduating, Austin plans on attending Southern State for one more year to finish his Associates, then to transfer somewhere to pursue a degree in Radiology.

SENIOR SPOTLIGHT

Jesse Faircloth was born at Highland District Hospital in Hillsboro, Ohio on March 21, 1991. His mother, Lugrace, and his sister, Autumn, are a few of his family members. He also has three dogs. His favorites consist of the color baby blue, lunch, and Mr. Wessner. If he got the chance, he would like to go to Jamaica. If he could be any superhero, he would like to be Austin Trueblood. When not working at K-Mart, he can be found hanging out with his friends and semi-pro golfing. In the future, he plans to attend UC.
