

WHITEOAK HIGH SCHOOL WEEKLY WILDCAT

Volume V, Issue 5 October 10, 2008

AG OLYMPICS

Written by: Danielle Grooms

Ag Olympics took place this week during A and B lunch and was a pretty good success. It started Monday with the bale toss. In the jr. high Jesse Gibson, 8th grade, threw the farthest with 23 ft. 7 in. In the high school, Frank Beigley, 10th, threw the farthest with 26 ft. 10 in. Joe Michael, 10th, threw it 27 ft. after the 5th try. Good job to Joe as well.

Nail Driving took place Tuesday and in the jr. high, Justin Butler, 8th, won 5 matches. In the high school, it was a tie between Joe Michael and Brian Maxwell. Ag. Olympics was postponed on Wednesday and Thursday and ended on Friday with corn hole competition and relay races. Stay tuned to next week's paper for more results!

THE OLD GYM GETS A NEW FACE

Written by: Sean Hurt

The school's old gym has had a major makeover. They've replaced everything from walls to the floor's padding. It became necessary to do this because of Jarod's Law, passed in September of 2007, to raise the standards of student safety. Many parts of the floor needed replaced or sanded down because they were so heavily damaged. In accordance with the new law, there now has to be a monthly bleacher inspection for damages. The people who worked on this are Kendall Clendenan, Martie Bratton, Dan Hunt, and Tim Hart. Thank you for all of your hard work!

SENIOR SPOTLIGHT

Written by: Cassie Buzard

Our senior spotlight this week is on Kyle Johnson, the son of Clifford Johnson. Kyle was born in Dayton, Ohio on October 25, 1990. Kyle has one pet and it's a dog named Hoch. Kyle is involved in a lot here at school. He is in FFA, the captain of the Academic Team and he is the president of JOGS and Drama. Kyle's favorite teachers are Mrs. Daulton, Mrs.

Gray, and Ms. Countryman.

If Kyle could go anywhere he would like to go to Russia, Scotland, or Japan. Kyle's favorite colors are black, red, silver, and purple. If he could be any super hero, he would be Wonder Woman because her hair has volume. His future plans are to attend Shawnee State University.

ART WEBSITE

Written by: Blake Stevens

There is an awesome website, www.Artsonia.com, where teachers can upload artwork so anybody can go on the website and view them. The website also allows students or parents to buy the artwork on products such as a mouse pad. It has artwork from all schools around the country. Miss Roberts has recently uploaded some of our students' artwork, so that parents can go on the website and see them.

In order to log on to the site, type in Mowrystown for school location on the home page of www.Artsonia.com, then click on Whiteoak. You do not have to have a password, and anyone can view the art work at anytime. However, to upload artwork on the site, you must be a teacher. Prices of merchandise are anywhere from $5 to $15.

CURRENT EVENTS

Written by: Rebecca Herzog

Members of the Highland and Clinton County Domestic Violence Agency were presented with a proclamation Wednesday by the Highland County Commissioners declaring October 2008 as Domestic Violence Awareness Month. Many businesses around Hillsboro are showing their support by decorating their buildings with purple ribbons and quotes regarding Domestic Violence Awareness. Be aware of domestic violence. If you or a friend is a victim of domestic violence, you can get help.
