Volume VI, Issue 6 October 23, 2009

50 Inning Results

Written by: Bailey Walker

Last Saturday, the gymnasium held 18 confident baseball players ready for a long day. The players were split into two teams, Orange and Black. This year the Black team defeated the Orange team 288-251. Gage Carraher was named MVP for the victorious Orange team, and the Black team's MVP was Michael Carraher. When asked how the event turned out overall Mr. Veidt says, "It went awesome, the players have been great about getting their pledge money turned in." Congratulations to Nathan Hauke for winning the prize for most total pledges ($152)! Mr. Veidt would like to say thank you to everyone who sponsored a player.

Operation Christmas Child

Written by: Kristen Seip

This year the National Honor Society is sponsoring the Operation Christmas Child program again. They are encouraging everyone to share love and joy with children in need by taking a small shoe box and filling it with small gifts. There are boxes in the guidance area you can pick up at any time. Inside your box, they ask you to enclose $7.00 for shipping and handling. The deadline for returning the boxes to the guidance area is Friday, October 30th.

Senior Spotlight

Written by: Caleb Jodrey

The senior spotlight this week is on Ben Ruark. Ben's parents are Gary and Carly Ruark. Ben has three brothers: Danny (25) and Jess and James (32). Ben's favorite subject in school is Ag. His favorite teacher is Mr. Veidt and his favorite sports team is the Ohio State Buckeyes, because there's no drama on the team. Ben's hobby is playing baseball. Ben is involved in baseball and FFA. After high school, Ben might go to Shawnee.

Thursday afternoon, a saucer-like craft was seen soaring through Fort Collins, Colorado. What many did not know was that an 8-year-old boy named Falcon Heene was thought to be trapped inside. Once the craft landed, many were shocked to see that the boy was not inside. After most feared for the worst, he appeared in his family's home. After being asked where he had been, Falcon said that he had fallen asleep in the attic after his father had yelled at him. Now there is a huge scandal as it is now believed that the whole thing was a hoax. Charges will be filed if it comes out that the family had lied.

The WHS Drama Club production of Ace of Diamonds will be Friday and Saturday, November 20 and November 21 at 7pm in the Old Gym.
